TOP49 MEN

2007 EDITION

Once again, it's time to select the men that have best represented our gender over the past year. We've compiled a list of candidates, all of whom have found great success in the past 12 months and have carried themselves like true men's men. Now, we're asking you to cast your votes for this year's nominees, ranking each on a scale of 1 to 10 (10 being the highest ranking). The voting period will be brief, so be sure to cast your votes today and check back in October, when we'll unveil 2007's No. 1 Man's Man.
